LOVE FOR ALL HATRED FOR NONE

Holy QUR'AN

Say, 'Come, I will rehearse to you what your Lord has forbidden: that you associate not anything as partner with Him and that you do good to parents, and that you kill not your children for fear of poverty — it is We Who provide for you and for them — and that you approach not foul deeds, whether open or secret; and that you kill not the life which Allah has made sacred, save by right. That is what He has enjoined upon you, that you may understand. [Chapter 6, Verse 152]

Hadith

Abdullah ibn Mas'ud relates that he asked the Holy Prophet: Which action is most acceptable to Allah? He answered: Performing the salaah at its due time. I asked: What next? He said: Benevolence towards parents. I asked: Which next? He said: Striving in the cause of Allah (Bokhari and Muslim).

Sayings of the Promised Messiah (Peace be on him)

God knows it quite well as to what is there in your hearts; if you are righteous, then you should know that God forgives those who turn to Him. The Champions of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) were also confronted with hardships, and for religious reasons their relations with their parents were strained. But of course, it is for you to try all you can to be good to them and to look after them as best lies in your power; you should not lose any opportunity to serve them. Your good intentions will bring you good rewards. If you have to get yourselves separated from them, because of your religion that, of course, is a thing, that you cannot help.

But you should always keep in mind that you have to try to be good to them; your intentions must always be very good. You should supplicate to God for them. It is not only you who have been made to confront with this kind of situation.

Hazrat Ibrahim, peace be upon him, had also to pass through the same circumstances. However, you should know that your duty to God comes first. You should give preference to Him and try to do your duty to your parents as well; you should also be praying for them - and you should be very sincere in whatever you do. Your intentions must always be good. (Malfoozat Vol. 10, pg. 131)
