

THE STUDENT PAGES

The Holy Qur'an

Surely, success does come to the believers, who are humble in their prayers, and who shun all that which is vain, and who are active in paying the Zakat, and who guard their chastity.

(Al-Mu'minun 23: 2-6)

Sayings of the Holy Prophet ﷺ

Abu Darda relates that he heard the Holy Prophet say: For him who adopts a path seeking knowledge, Allah eases the way to Paradise and angels spread their wings for a seeker of knowledge, being pleased with his occupation, and all that are in the heavens and the earth, including the fish in water, ask for forgiveness for a learned one.

A learned one is superior to a worshipper as the moon is superior to all the planets. The divines are heirs of the Prophets and the Prophets do not leave an inheritance of dirhams and dinars but only of knowledge. He who acquires knowledge acquires a vast portion.

(Abu Daud and Tirmidhi)

The Holy Bible

Resist the devil and he will flee from you. Draw near to God and He will draw near to you.

(James 4: 7-8)

Prophet Solomon

Choose knowledge rather than the finest gold.

Message from Student Affairs team UK

Assalamo Alaikum Wa Rahmatullah

We would like to welcome you to the fourth issue of The Student Pages. Each month we are sending this newsletter to all Khuddam across the country, and we hope you draw benefit from its content.

This month our focus is on exams. You may or may not have already taken all of your end of year examinations, nevertheless, this could be relevant information for your future studies. Exams are a time for us to test our skills and knowledge with regards to specialists subjects, however, we must also look at their much wider applications in life.

We undertake academic studies in order to feed our minds, and the evolution of the mind is what is necessary for our ultimate development. One must continuously remember that only our mind will lead us into the next life, therefore it becomes imperative to advance it with the best knowledge. Although exams are a very testing time for us all, we must also remember that it assists us towards perfection of knowledge, and that is what is essential.

Only Almighty Allah can grant us success in our endeavors, but not without us first presenting our best efforts.

May Allah enable us all to achieve extremely high in our academic endeavors and grant us success both in this life and the hereafter. Ameen.

Wassalam

We would like to humbly request all Khuddam across the country, from all fields, to kindly contribute articles to The Student Pages. The topics can range from course profiles to personal experiences, Islamic issues to current affairs and many more.

Please also encourage others to contribute. Articles should be sent before the 15th of each month, to allow enough time to process and display the content. JazakAllah.

Are you at university?

Have you considered forming an Ahmadiyya Muslim Society?

The advantages of having such a society is manifold, to the Jamaat as a whole as well as to the individual students.

A university society provides an excellent platform for spreading the true Message of Islam to the students and the academics of the university, and encourages interfaith dialogue.

Remember, even two students are enough to set up and successfully run a society.
