WAQAR E AMAL

By the grace of God, we were able to hold several Waqar-e-Amal sessions this month, during which we dedicated our efforts to cleaning the mosque. In addition, we assisted with the kitchen clean-up after events. We also took the time to tidy up the prayer room and the downstairs hall. Given that Iftaar events took place every Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, the mosque was thoroughly cleaned after each session.

TABLIGH

By the Grace of God, MKA Birmingham West organized a Tabligh stall in Barnes Hill, where four Khuddam participated. During the event, numerous conversations were held with non-Ahmadis. A leaflet distribution session also took place, during which 65 leaflets were handed out, contributing to the spread of peace and the true teachings of Islam.

KHIDMAT-E-KHALQ

By the grace of God, members of MKA Birmingham West came together to support those in need, donating 30 food boxes to the homeless. Additionally, four dedicated Khuddam took part in a street cleanup in Barnes Hill, making a visible difference and receiving heartfelt appreciation from the local community.

MKA BIRMINGHAM WEST

TALEEM AND TARBIYYAT

By the grace of God, MKA Birmingham West held a Taleem class featuring an insightful and engaging speech by the local Imam. Over 20 Khuddam attended, making the most of this blessed opportunity to gain knowledge and strengthen their faith. Following the session, the Khuddam gathered to break their fast together. Additionally, a MASQ presentation was delivered, adding further value to the event.

JALSA YOUNE MESIH-E-MAUD

By the grace of God, Jalsa Yaum-e-Masih-e-Maud was successfully held, featuring insightful and inspiring speeches. Many Khuddam attended this blessed gathering, seizing the opportunity to gain valuable knowledge and strengthen their faith, making the event a great success.

GENERAL MEETING

By the grace of God, MKA Birmingham West held a general meeting attended by many Khuddam. Following the session, the Khuddam brothers came together to break their fast, strengthening their bonds of brotherhood and unity.

BIG IFTAAR

By the grace of God, MKA Birmingham West hosted the Big Iftaar, welcoming numerous guests to this special gathering. Inspiring speeches were delivered, and the community united in a shared commitment to peace and understanding. Guests also had the opportunity to observe Muslim prayers, fostering greater interfaith appreciation. The event concluded with everyone breaking their fast together, further strengthening bonds of brotherhood and harmony.

SEHT-E-JISMANI

By the grace of God, MKA Birmingham West organized numerous sports sessions throughout the month, helping members strengthen both their faith and physical well-being. Regular football sessions were held at Goals Dudley, while several cricket and badminton sessions also took place throughout the month.
